

Congressman Pence appeared on FOX News to discuss the White House' request that Americans report any "fishy" behavior with regard to the health care town halls occurring across the country:

"I am telling you, at these record crowds, people are not uninformed, they are informed. They understand that this administration is running record deficits and is about to launch a $1.6 trillion government takeover of health care paid for by $8 billion in higher taxes."